I purchased your SOAR Study Skills book and it has been a God-Send. We have a 9th grader that has benefited tremendously from just the beginning steps of implementing the Binder & Files, Note taking, Research/Project Folder with Notecards/Envelopes, Time Management & Test Prep skills. The ONE BINDER AT SCHOOL method is Genius. She was so overwhelmed the first few days with a backpack full of binders & folders (required for each teacher's list of supplies) that did not even have the correct subject materials inside them. NOW she has that one slim binder and each folder/divider is carrying the items due... even that use of the front and back pockets is brilliant since the reality of putting unfiled items in the front and admin type papers in the back. The process of going through the papers and organizing them is a psycho-semantic activity that triggers success feelings of success and structure AND it is a reminder of what is priority , what is ready to turn in and not done yet. And for US, it has been a HUGE help ending the "discussions" about how she should do anything academically. We have the "Same sheet of Music" now. We have not used everything YET but it is a go-to resource. Thank YOU! Thanks for the help. Patrick

Dear Mrs. Kruger, I just wanted to write to thank you for how your research and sharing has impacted so many lives, including my own. The SOAR Program has revolutionized my 6th graders' lives in and out of school. Many parents and visitors to our classroom have been inspired by your program and have expressed their desire to take the class! My own life in and out of school has likewise been blessed by your commitment to helping others. You are truly making the world a better place for many, many people of all ages, Mrs. Kruger. Thank you very much! May God richly bless you and your family. Sincerely, Rock Schulz (6th Grade teacher-Carmel Christian School)

"I am very excited to start teaching it (SOAR Study Skills). It's funny because a lot of what you do is what I do informally on a daily basis, but it's nice to have it all in a neat little package so I can teach it as a workshop. I'm very excited!"

"I have investigated many programs and yours is the best!"	Stephen D.	Tutor
"Thank you so very much!!!! I LOVE this program."	Kim S.	Tutor
"I have been able to look over the booklet on "How to Advertise Tutoring" and am beginning to work on that with the help of my advertising student, Kirsten. It is very helpful information and I appreciate all the work you put into it for us prospective tutors."	Jean H.	Tutor
I was trying to design a study skills class and did an online search to find some good resources and SOAR came up. When I looked at the program and how organized it was, it appealed to me! There were other programs out there, and there were things I could have done myself, but because SOAR has a research base behind it, that is what attracted me to this particular program.	Lauri O.	High School Teacher
"I see students who have been very happy with the program as well as parents. I can see huge rewards with this program!"	Beth B.	High School Teacher
"The information is nice because it comes in "quick hits," meaning it isn't overly burdensome to cover; the principle is there, we can employ it almost immediately, and move on to practicing it."	Therese S.	Middle School Teacher
"I have done much research over the last 2 years in an attempt to find "just the right thing" that I feel would be most beneficial with the at-risk students with whom I work. Though my work with students has been helpful, I have always believed something more concrete that systematically teaches organization and study skills, would be more fruitful for students in the long term. I have concluded, FINALLY, that the SOAR® Study Skills program is the best I have ever seen, offering the most comprehensive coverage of the needs of the students I service. The author provides sound rationale for her approach and plenty of info to answer questions, as the site is easy to navigate. The resources are simple/kid-friendly, illustrating each desired skill. As a teacher, having viewed and used numerous curriculums over the years, I am most excited about this discovery."	Rita L.	Middle School Teacher

"I like the SOAR® system because the strategies pertain to all students. I have found that even my gifted students have problems with organizations, maybe more so than others. I had a 5th-grader last year who was a "shover," he could not get papers in the correct folder to save his life. We exchanged his folders for the SOAR® Binder System. He was so relieved to see how simple it could be to organize his papers, he gave me a huge hug! I put another 4th-grader on the Binder System this year. He feels so much more organized now and can find things quickly. I still check in with the organization when we meet during class. I like how he puts everything in the front and then makes time at the end of the day to put in all of his papers where they need to go. I don't know what these kids would have done without going on the SOAR® Binders. The system is great. They feel better about school – kind of a relief seeing their stuff organized for once! They finally know where everything is! I have a whole third grade that is planning to implement the SOAR® Binder System for their students next year..."	Felicia T.	Learning Specialist
"Susan ~ This is very exciting....the SOAR® Binder System and handbook are the cornerstone for my study skills class for all 6th graders at St. John's. We have had great success!"	Valarie B.	Learning Specialist
"Excellent, usable information!"	Lori B.	Middle School Teacher
"This is a great system! I would like to see my whole school use this. Would you be interested in training my colleagues?"	Sarah D.	Middle School Teacher
"This will make my school year run a lot smoother- thanks for all the wonderful ideas."	Michelle P.	Middle School Teacher
"I loved the binder. What a simple but effective idea!"	Jennifer G.	Middle School Teacher
"We have found the SOAR system to be working. There have been no missed assignments and no problems with the homework left at school."	Vicki W.	Middle School Teacher
"I use this in a high school study skills class and the students find the book easy to navigate, the students are able to relate to the concepts and find them useful, and the suggestions within the text are age/grade appropriate."	Margie G.	High School Teacher
"Good examples- well-organized, researched, and developed. There are also some good "helpful hints" like locker organization, how to talk to teachers, etc."	Scott B.	Middle School Parent

The teachers loved the book and "did not want it to end." Thanks so much!"	Elissa L.	Middle School Counselor
"I LOVE my SOAR book."	Karen G.	Elementary School Student
"SOAR has been an invaluable aid in using with my high school students. What I really love about it is that she herself experienced learning problems as a child in school, as did I. She provides readers with hope, instills a can-do-it attitude, has wonderful analogies which drive home her points beautifully, and shares great strategies. The pocket organizer for writing a research paper is so simple in concept, yet designed to help students organize a huge project in easy, doable steps. Wish I had these strategies when I was in school, life would have been so much easier! Kudos to Susan for her program."	Betsy C.	High School Teacher
The program is very user friendly and convenient. My students like the language and identify with the skills they need to begin working on as they work through high school.	Meghan S.	Intervention Specialist

"I got a lot of good organizational ideas from instructor and other participants. Very good!"	Judy B.	Middle School Student
"Thank you for being so willing to make your materials available for perusal! Not many companies do that and when you get what you've ordered and already paid for and it ends up not being exactly what you thought or needed, it's quite a letdown."	Katy L.	Middle School Teacher
"Thank you very much for your help accessing the SOAR Multi-Media Teacher's Guide. It is a very strong indication of the support I can expect to receive as I implement this curriculum in our after-school program."	Ava C.	Middle School Teacher
"I was researching good material to use to do some study skills groups. I looked through about 6 books on study skills for middle school and found SOAR to be the best. "I believe these strategies will work wonders for all students. By being aware of all the steps required to complete even the most simple task will hopefully make staff more explicit in directions, and more aware of keeping instructions, planners, tasks simple. Lightbulb explanation soooooo clear."	Mary H.	Middle School Teacher
"Thank you so much for your prompt assistance. I must say, your company is a pleasure to deal with!"	Julie G.	High School Tutor
"We are loving SOAR. We offered it as an after school class for 5th-8th grade students. We expected maybe 15-20 to sign up but ended up with close to 40! These are obviously areas in which parents want help! We are only halfway through and the feedback from parents AND students is great! Better yet - the feedback from the teachers is positive. Thank you for making it easy to teach!"	Leslie W.	Middle School Teacher
"Your program helped me change into an A average student in High School after struggling with C's and D's. I'm looking forward to using it in College. I have also shared the knowledge that you passed on to my ten siblings and many friends. Thank you so much for sharing your knowledge and if you need any help please let me know. Thanks again."	Chelsea S.	High School Student

"I have a child who is bright and enrolled in a very rigorous school, but I realize he does not know how to study properly, manage a longer view of assignments, etc. I recently read your SOAR® Study Skills book and subsequently ordered the Homework Help! for Parents. I am on disc 2 and I am a convert! I am also delighted to learn that I am not alone in this battle..."	Denise J.	Middle School Parent
"Kurt is more focused about his time management. The jar of priorities made a big impact on how he uses his time on a daily basis."	Lachele M.	Middle School Parent

"I'm happy to tell you that my daughter is doing splendidly well in school. We've gone over your book together. You got her off to a good start with the binder system. I do not check her work or even help her at all. Her teachers have told me that she is a model student. She has been responsible in keeping up with her studies and receiving good grades even though she has had a grueling schedule. Thanks so much for what you do for the students."	Debbie M.	High School Parent
"Today my son came home from school and as we do most days, made a plan for the afternoon. Since I work from home, I can't keep close tabs on him because I'm usually in another room. Today, he totally followed the schedule, without any reminders...came in from playing outside on time, immediately sat down and did his homework and finished 45 minutes ahead of schedule so he is hanging out with my husband and chatting. This is not normal and perhaps it won't happen again for a while but I'm really thrilled."	Deb P.	Middle School Parent
"Thanks for a great class! Tom really enjoyed it, which impressed me. He never complained about the meetings and I think I heard him participating."	Chris F.	High School Parent

"My son failed most of his college classes for almost four years before we discovered study skills. After that, he became a straight-A student, sailed through school, and is now a very successful entrepreneur! I wish I had known he needed study skills along...a couple hundred dollars in high school would have saved me tens of thousands of wasted tuition money!"	Theresa S.	College Parent
"Huge thank you - the success kit is amazing!!!"	Jen R.
"WOW! We are really digging our school success kits ... These will be SO VERY helpful this school year! THANK YOU!!!"	Vicky T.	Middle School Teacher
"You've been so helpful and so friendly - outstanding customer service from day one!"	Rebecca H.	Elementary School Parent
The big test came when I introduced the program to my daughter. Honestly, I expected some eye rolls. I was SO surprised! She was totally into it! She started going through the book, and was thrilled with the binder and the planner. She immediately packed them into her bag to start using at school! One of her favorite parts was the tips for students who live in two homes, as she does. I have noticed a remarkable change in the two weeks she has been using the program! She informed me last week that she was going to stay after school to work on an essay – which was due three days later! She has had several large projects that I have watched her plan out in her planner to complete over several days. Additionally, while her grades were already good, she improved her science grade from a 92 to a 99, and her English grade from a 94 to a 99! We could not be happier with SOAR. As an educator, I agree that it is soundly based in solid educational research, and would be an awesome tool for Response to Intervention (RTI). As a parent, if you and your student are struggling with organization and study skills, the SOAR product has my enthusiastic endorsement!"
	Jamie N.	Middle School
Getting parents on board to help students with homework is a challenge at times. Not many parents are particularly comfortable with saying 'I am going to sign up to help my child with calculus or AP physics.' SOAR really works for all of our parents. It's simple, and it's easily understood by all of the parents no matter what the demographic is and it makes sense. That's a huge benefit to using SOAR.	Gary T.	Director

"Your program is of great value... I have received a great many comments about the positive results here at TTA. I have also observed many students using the SOAR® methods. We have frequent parent conferences and many of our freshmen and sophomore students and parents refer to your methods during these conferences. The parent resources are vitally important to the program..." SOAR has been very successful. It is a very purposeful well-constructed program and it has great potential to develop student responsibility, develop student thinking, and develop their autonomy in owning their own schoolwork and taking pride in it.	Gary T.	Director
"I am an assistant principal. We adopted the SOAR Study Skills curriculum binder system from K-8 grades. The students in fourth through eighth grades have the book. The SOAR Study Skills has helped our students stay organized. Our teachers have embraced the program. Parents love the program. One of the parents said that she has adopted the system for her business."	Marie S.	Assistant Principal
"I wanted to let you know that our parents are still saying great things about SOAR®. Many of the comments center on how practical everything is...Several parents are doing the weekly meeting and they love it!"	Dave S.	Assistant Principal
"WOW!!!! Thank you SO much for this. The webinar was AWESOME!!!! I truly appreciate being invited to it, and for free to boot!!! Even though I have ADD, my daughter has ADHD, and I'm a Special Ed teacher who works with many kids that have it, I learned a great deal from Ms. Kruger. Her explanation of the disorder, and the visuals she provided were the best I've ever heard/seen. I've been to many doctors with my daughter, none of whom put it in a nutshell the way Ms. Kruger did. Kudos to her, and all you folks at ADDitude Mag. for arranging this to happen!"	Katharine G.	ADHD Parent of an ADHD Child
"I'm still reeling the information in my head about, "Think about what this child needs to learn in the real world" - so practical!! You were totally speaking about my son when you said that in their mind if they have answered the question, they have completed the objective. There are times when detail is needed and at others	Susan R.	Parent of an ADHD Child
"I tell everyone about Aidan's success from using the workbook. I recommend it so much, I had a disclaimer stating that I do not own shares in the company!"	Monica P.	Parent

"I have learned so much from Susan because she takes the time to clearly explain just a simple task like the 23 steps to getting Mark a cup of milk. I am going to use this article to help my great nephew to better understand his own ADHD. The psychologist can't do what Susan does well."	Jean P.	Parent
"The SOAR program supplied a ton of information that will help me in my future."	Emily A.	Student
"I have learned how to set & achieve goals, how to schedule my time, how to take notes, how to organize a binder, and how to keep track of assignments."	Andrew S.	Student
"Please let Susan Kruger know that I believe in her program so much, I endorse it all the time - to anyone who will listen. I also recommended it to the principal of my daughter's elementary school. People are starting to believe that I have "stock options" in your company."	Aguayos P.	Elementary School Parent
"I could tell right away that the SOAR workbook was just what my two tutoring students needed. Their attitudes toward schoolwork in general have totally improved, and their grades in their problem subjects are creeping upward. Their parents are also very happy with the program."	Linda W.	Tutor
"This book was just what we needed! Although we went through the chapters together, love that it is written at my child's level for easy understanding and application."	R. Howard
I use this book with fifth and six graders in small study skills groups. I really like the way the lessons are broken down and made relevant and practical for kids. I did adapt some of the lessons/materials for my specific needs, but overall, it's a very useful tool.	Anonymous	Elementary School Teachers
This was a great resource. I developed a study skills curriculum from some of the concepts from this book. Nice and easy applicable concepts!	Nicole D.	Middle School Teacher

Purchased this for my 14-year old as she enters high school. Hoping to help her identify study/comprehension skills that will be great tools to use in her high school career. She is doing the exercises and reading it without any direction from me! She even presented me with one of the challenges on observation. This has been a plus for her summertime reading. Hopefully it will help her in this next chapter.	Anonymous	High School Parent
Excellent...the product and delivery met my expectations!	Patrick L.	Middle School Parent
Amazing book!! Good to help kids of all ages!!!	Rachel C.	Parent
Got this for my daughter whose son has ADHD. As a former middle school teacher who has taken classes for exceptional children with disabilities, this book is excellent! I think it will help both the parents and the child to succeed!	Barbara P.	Parent
Best study skills book ever. Using these techniques I got my first A for a university paper this year, and I have been doing a B'Ed in special education part-time for nine years. This has changed the way I work/study forever.	Jehanne H.	Student
Great book. I have been a teacher for 10 years and would highly recommend this book	Jenniifer H.	Teacher
I used this with my special education students. The book offers a variety of exercises to help my students learn to prioritize their tasks and get them done in a timely manner.	Katherine F.	Teacher
I used these books in a middle school study skills class and a high school academic success & career preparation class that I teach for homeschoolers at a co-op. Many of the students like it, and it has what I need for these classes. They find the SOAR binder and planner to be especially helpful.	Patricia M.	Middle and High School Teacher

My 10-year-old daughter has ADHD and is extremely disorganized. She usually ends up with piles of papers in her backpack, binder and desk and loses homework and notes regularly. I thought about getting her an Organizational Coach to teach her how to handle schoolwork, but decided to try a book first. I was very impressed with the methods taught in this book. It is written by a person who struggled with organization and learned these skills. It motivates kids by showing them how much easier life will be if they follow the simple steps.
S.O.A.R. stands for "Set Goals", "Organize", "Ask Questions", and "Record your Progress". The "Set Goals" section talks about making priorities so you can fit in work and fun stuff as well. The "Organize" section was extremely helpful, By using the calendar properly, students will know what is due and can prioritize their time. By setting up one binder and placing paperwork in the proper place, homework will no longer get lost in the shuffle. The "Ask Questions" section was helpful in teaching how to take notes, read textbooks, study for and take tests, and write papers. The "Record your Progress" section encourages kids to track their grades so they can monitor their goals and recognizing their achievements.
I am very pleased with the book and looking forward to an easier school-year.	Summer F.	Elementary School Parent
A very good system for ADD and ADHD students! The chapters are easy to read and the strategies are easy to implement!	Stephania N.	Elementary School Teacher
Great book to help students and teachers get organized. I love the simple, straight forward suggestions to help students not only get organized but understand the importance of organization and effort.	J.W.	Elementary School Teacher
My 12 year old daughter, who is not naturally organized, loves this system. It's interesting to read, and interactive so keeps her wanting to do more to get organized. It teaches her how to use an organizer, how to set up a binder and label things, and how to file paperwork. She hasn't got this far yet, but it also teaches how to keep track of assignments, and grades for each subject. Apparently, she says that it even tells you how to organize your room! I love that she's getting organized and she's enthusiastic about it. Every week she gives me a list of things she needs to help her organize like binder, file folders, etc... I highly recommend using this with your teen.	Anonymous	Middle School Parent

Bought it to work with college students on their study skills. The book is full of helpful hints. Great Buy!	Dr. Helen M.	Professor
I would recommend this book to any parent, teacher or school counselor working with a student who is in need of organizational skills, study skills, and confidence in their abilities. I've been using the materials to run small groups, and so far it has been great. I love that the book starts at a student's strengths and continually reminds them that they can reach their goals.	Katie B.	Middle School Teacher
Got this for my HS son and read it myself. Very easy to get through with graphics and amusing humor that shows that the author really "gets" kids. Loved the part about "reading the pictures" in a text book - so many tricks and tips that I wish I had known growing up.	Paige N.	High School Parent
I got this because my 10 year old son had a couple of grades drop this quarter, and in talking to him, it was not because he found the topics difficult, but rather because he was not studying adequately, and was not studying adequately in part because these two courses are heavily reliant on handouts rather than textbooks, and he was losing all of his handouts! He's in a gifted program in which the materials are often handouts to supplement, so this problem was only going to increase. I bought this as well as two other books (I tend to over-research/bombard problems; the lawyer in me). While it's early yet, I probably could have done with just this book. I think it's worth its weight in gold.	S. White	Elementary School Parent
Soar Study Skills is an excellent resource for students, parents and teachers. It is kid friendly and very practical with clear narrative explanations and relevant worksheets. I highly recommend this book to students of all ages.	Lisa K.	Middle School Teacher
This is my first year teaching your curriculum and I am really enjoying the positive response I am getting from the students as well as the parents!	Anonymous
My daughter picked up your SOAR book I strategically left on the basement stairs (face up of course). She read a chapter and then re wrote her class notes using a question first. She said it made her think about the material more. Nice!! I love seeing youth apply wisdom. Thanks for writing SOAR!	Bill W.

I have learned and used a great deal of your work and information in my teaching. Many students have been helped through your program. I thank you for sharing your information and materials. At this time, in my career, I am retired from full time teaching and just have a student or two that I tutor. I have given other teachers and parents information about your site. I would like to continue to receive your information as, the saying goes, once a teacher, always a teacher! Thank you for sharing your information.
